Author: The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals

Realese Date: Expected @@expectedReleaseDate@@

This appeal involves a dispute among the shareholders of two corporations that owned automobile dealerships in Nashville. After he was fired as the general manager of one of the dealerships, one of the shareholders filed suit in the Chancery Court for Davidson County seeking to invalidate the stock repurchase agreements and non-competition agreements and to rescind a conveyance of real property. The trial court dismissed the complaint finding that it failed to state claims upon which relief could be granted. The shareholder has appealed. We have determined that the complaint states several claims upon which relief can be granted and, therefore, vacate portions of the trial courts order.
