CALLISTER, Chief Justice: Plaintiffs filed this action to partition certain real property in Sanpete County, which they owned as tenants in common with defendants. There were six parcels of land involved; plaintiffs and defendants each owned a one-half undivided interest in four of the parcels, and in the remaining two, plaintiffs owned an undivided three-fourths interest, and defendants an undivided one-fourth interest. The trial court ordered the appointment of three referees to partition the property. The referees recommended certain division lines, which were subsequently adopted by the trial court. A judgment was rendered decreeing partition in accordance with the report of the referees. Defendants appeal.
